Good Luck!

Answer to last's month's riddle was:

They have noBODY to dance with

The Quill

In the spirit of my favorite holiday, all of us at Barrister's Title wish to express our THANKS. Knocking on wood as I type this. . . it really seems like we are seeing a light at the end of a very long tunnel. It is a credit to our collective resourcefulness, customer support and business acumen that we have all made it this far. Many of our former brethren have not. And while many Americans are still unemployed, our respective industries appear to be hiring again. All things to be very thankful for. . .

Another thing to be thankful for is the fact that the elections are (finally) over. I have been reading up on my Roman History lately and I want to also express thankfulness for the stark difference between American and Roman political history. . . come January, those voted out of office will leave and those recently elected will be sworn in. Peacefully. With no blood shed or violence. Regardless of your political affiliation and persuasion that is something to very, very thankful for.

Thank you for your business, support and friendship and for all that you have done for our Agency and me personally. We owe all of our success to you. Thank you!!!

From all of us, to you and yours, our most sincere and heartfelt wish of a Happy Thanksgiving.

Wait. . . what????!!!

Instantaneous Seisen is one of those legal doctrines that has always been a bedrock foundation of the practice of Dirt Law in this State. Well, apparently, like all good things, that legal Doctrine's time may have come to an unceremonious end. . . at least as it relates to priorities versus the rights of a non-owner spouse. As a consequence of an adverse ruling by the legal department at the NC Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), until further notice, the Underwriters in this State will no longer insure over the marital rights of non-joining spouses. . .even on purchase money mortgages. As such, we must insist on both spouses joining in on any mortgage until further notice.

Spare Ribs

We think the AOC has got this one wrong, but are going to need some time to see what shakes out. More to come in future Newsletters. . .

Barristers All-Stars

This is our second installation of our newsletter's newest feature. . ."Barristers All-Stars". Our goal is to highlight those customers whose practices and work habits are truly exceptional.
